SANTANDER SANTIAGO ANNOUNCES THE CONCLUSION OF THE MERGER PROCESS

Santiago, April 24, 2003. After only nine months and ahead of schedule, the merger process between Banco Santander-Chile and Santiago has been successfully completed. This merger created the largest bank in Chile in terms of assets (US$16.4 billion), customer base (1.9 million clients) and distribution network (346 branches and 1,104 ATMs).

The President of Santander Santiago, Mauricio Larraín together with Chief Executive Officer Fernando Cañas pointed out that this process was performed without major client disruptions and without interrupting the Bank's commercial activity.

In the inaugural ceremony, Mr. Larraín emphasized Santander Santiago's strong competitive advantages that includes: the strongest distribution network (branches, ATMs and alternative channels), the largest client base in Chile, high efficiency and profitability levels, leaders in technology and innovation and being part of Santander Central Hispano, a world financial leader. The President also revealed the main points of the Bank's 2003- 2005 Strategic Plan which are all focused towards creating value for clients, shareholders, employees and society.

At the same time Mr. Cañas pointed out that the new Bank enters the market with a strong focus on clients. This includes supplying different product mixes to the Bank's various client segments, simple attention models, innovative products and total focus on client service. Moreover, Mr. Cañas illustrated the main characteristic of the new brand, Santander Santiago, which adequately unites the "value of being the largest local player with a strong international backing."
